One of the most colorful and powerful Turmoil posters now in the history of the University is the project of the Glee Club, under the direction of President John F. Corrigan. The poster is a product of the most outstanding art work that has been produced in the history of the University. It features a design of the student body, which is composed of students from the University of Notre Dame, Washington State University, and the University of California.

Cardinals Garner Fourth Victory In Downing Columbus

Second Upset in as Many Weeks Scored by Ted Mandris

Ir. WILLIAM O'LEARY

In an unexpected victory at the University of Notre Dame, Catholic University's Ted Mandris scored a significant upset over the Fighting Irish. Mandris, a senior running back, scored a touchdown in the second quarter, giving the Cardinals a 15-0 lead. The Fighting Irish came back to tie the game in the third quarter, but Mandris scored again in the fourth quarter to give the Cardinals a 23-10 victory. Catholic University's next game is against the University of Southern California, and fans are excited to see how Mandris and the team will perform.
